

Now the Day Is Over

MERRIAL (Barnby) (6.5.6.5)

S. Baring-Gould

Sir Joseph Barnby

= 140
Verse

Now the day is o - ver,
Je - - sus, give the wea - ry
Grant to lit - tle chil - dren
Com - fort ev - 'ry suf - f'rer
Through the long night watch - es
Glo - - ry to the Fa - ther,

3

night is draw - ing nigh, shad - ows of the eve - ning calm and sweet re - pose; with thy ten - d'rest bless - ing vi - sions bright of thee; guard the sail - ors, toss - ing watch - ing late in pain; those who plan some e - vil
may thine an - gels spread their white wings a - bove me, glo - ry to the Son, and to thee, blest Spir - it,

7

steal a - cross the sky.
may our eye lids close.
on the deep blue sea.
from their sin re - strain.
watch - ing all round - my bed.
whilst all a ges run.