We have not long to stay;
 And says its all in vain
 By eyes of faith I see
 While she is pass - ing by;

6

The storm - y clouds of dark - ness
 To try to live a Chris - tian life
 As she sweeps thro' the wat - ers,
 But if you stand and wait too long,

9

Will turn to bright - est day.
And walk in Je - sus' name;
To res - cue you and me,
You shall for - ev - er die;

12

Then let us all take cour - age,
But then we hear the Mas - ter say,
And land us safe - ly in the port
The fare is paid for one and all,

15

For we're not left a - lone;
"I'll lend you a help - ing hand,
With friends you we love so dear.
The Cap - tain bids you come,

18

The life - boat soon is com - - ing
And if you'll on - ly trust me,
"Get read - y," cries the Cap - - tain;
And get on board the life - - boat,

21

To gath - er the Jew - els home.
I'll guide you to that land."
"Oh, look, she's al - most here."
She'll car - ry you safe - ly home.
