

The Song of Zechariah

Luke 1:68-79

Verse

D G D G D B

Bless - ed is Is - rael's God, who looked up - on us
 En - e - mies put to flight, and all who hate us,
 You, child, will come to be God's mo - dern pro - phet.
 Ten - der God's mer - cy as dawn breaks up - on us.

4 Em A D G^bm/D^b D^b D^b7 G^bm

and has re - deemed those who've walked in his ways.
 mer - cy to an - ces - tors told is re - vealed.
 Be - fore God's Christ you'll make rea - dy the way.
 Light shines in dark - ness and sha - dows of death.

8 A7 D G^b7/D^b Bm Bm/G^b G^b7 G G^bm/A

For whom he raised up a sav - ior most might - y.
 Cov - e - nants made with the pa - tri - archs re - mem - bered
 Giv - ing folks know - ledge of God's great for - give - ness
 Free - dom to cap - tives who've cried for God's pre - sence

12

Bm Bm/D G D Em Em/G D/A A A/G D

This, we were told by the prophets of old.
that we might serve right - eous - ly with - out fear.
and of sal - va - tion that all may par - take.
to guide our feet in di - vine ways of peace.