

Luke 4:1-13 I'll be Back

Verse      A      E      D      A      D      C#m      E7      A

Moun-tain tops of Spi-rit oft-en lead to wil-der-ness and woe,
 Ev'-ry-where a-round us there are ma-ny won-ders to be-hold.
 Set up an ex-per-i-ment and put these things to the test.
 If you shun the of-fer now, be sure that you stay on track.

where a test and a temp-ter a-wait us, see-king, meet-ing us as we go.
 Ma-ny things want wor-ship and we have souls that can be sold.
 Try one, then the oth-er, prove to your-self which one is best.
 Hold this in-for-ma-tion tight-ly, be-ing care-ful; don't get hacked.

Are we who we thought we were? Is there a-ny-one who knows?
 There's wealth and pow'r in reach to stretch out and grasp and hold.
 When done, opt for the fun, and dis-pense with all the rest.
 Some day what I have off-ered will sup-ply the thing you lack.

If we are God's be-lov-ed, why is life as hard as stone?
 When it all comes crash-ing down, then, re-mem-ber you were told.
 Then spread your meth-od 'round so that ev'-ry-one gets blessed.
 Just re-mem-ber, though I go, you will see me, I'll be back.
