

In Deepest Slumber Once the Master Lay

Verse

F Dm Gm7 C F C F

In deep - est slum - ber once the Mas - ter lay
 They asked the Mas - ter once they reached the stern:
 "Have you no faith," asked Je - sus in re - ply,
 Come quell, O Christ, the temp - est in our hearts,

5 C G7 C F G C

As His dis - ci - ples sailed one qui - et day.
 "Do You not care, do You not have con - cern?"
 "In time of fear you must on Me re - ly."
 And grant the peace Your hand al - one im - parts.

9 C7 F C Am C7 F

A temp - est rose and came ac - ross their path:
 The Mas - ter rose and stretched His hands out wide,
 They stood as - ton - ished, what more could they say:
 When in our boats we find our - selves in fear,

13

C7 Dm Gm Dm Csus4 C F

Would not the Mas - ter and, save them from its wrath?
"Be still," said He, and, lo, it did sub - side.
"Who is this man whom seas and winds ob - ey?"
Teach us to know that You are ev - er near.