

Luke 12:13-21 Bouncing Things Off of the Almighty

Verse

A preach - er with a prob - lem child was oft - en heard to pray,
To set forth your i - de - as for what some - one else should do,
To have too much is not a sin. The bless - ings can be seen.

6

when lead - ing groups of wor - ship - pers each week - ly Sab - bath day, di - rect - ing them to God, in - stead, means they might not get through.
But, when we fo - cus just on that we miss what life can mean.

11

that God should grant to chil - dren both the wis - dom and the word
A man asked Je - sus to de - cide a mon - e - ta - ry spat.
E - ter - ni - ty a - waits us all; our treas - ures all will rot.

16

to prac - tice strong o - be - di - ence to sta - ted rules they heard.
The Lord re - plied, "It's not my job," and add - ed more to that.
No mat - ter how we store things up, we must be rich toward God.
