

How Bright Appears the Morning Star

Verse

D Bm7 E A

How bright ap - pears the Morn - ing Star,
 Though cir - cled by the hosts on high,
 Re - joice, O heavens, and earth, re - ply;

4 G D Esus4 E A

with mer - cy beam - ing from a - far;
 he deigned to cast a - ying eye
 with praise, O sin - ners, fill the sky

7 G Em Asus4 A D

the host of heaven re - joic - - es.
 up - on his help - less crea - - ture.
 for this, his in - car - na - - tion.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'How Bright Appears the Morning Star'. It is written in G major (one sharp) and common time (C). The score is divided into three systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system (measures 1-3) is labeled 'Verse' and has chords D, Bm7, E, and A. The second system (measures 4-6) has chords G, D, Esus4, E, and A. The third system (measures 7-9) has chords G, Em, Asus4, A, and D. The lyrics are written below the treble staff, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

10

Bm7 E A

O Right - eous Branch, O Jes - se's Rod,
The whole cre - a - tion's put head - and Lord,
In - car - nate God, put forth your power;

13

G D Esus4 E A

the Son of Man and Son of God!
by high - est ride on, a great Con - quer - dored, ride on, on, great Con - quer - or,

16

G Em Asus4 A D

We too will lift our voic - - es:
as - sumed our ver - y na - - ture;
till all know your sal - va - - tion.

19

A D A D

Je - - sus, Je - - sus,
Je - - sus, grant us,
A - - men, a - - men!

21

A D A

ho - ly, ho - ly, yet most low - ly, through your mer - it, to in - her - it
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

23

Em A D

come, draw near us;
your sal - va - tion.
Praise be giv - en

24

Bm7 G D Asus4 A7 D

great Em - man - uel, come and hear us.
Hear, O hear our sup - pli - ca - - tion.
ev - er - more by earth and heav - en.