

Thou hidden Love of God, whose height

Verse

Thou hid - den love of God, whose height,
 'Tis mer - cy all that thou hast brought
 Is there a thing be - neath the sun
 O Love, thy sov - ereign aid im - part Each mo - ment draw from earth a - way

4

whose depth un - fath - omed no one knows,
 my mind to seek its peace in thee;
 that strives with thee from my low - ly heart to share?
 to save me that low - ly thought - ed care;
 my heart that call

7

I see from far thy beau - teous light, yet while I seek, but find thee not,
 Ah, tear this it thence and a lone,
 chase this self - will from my heart,
 speak to my in - most soul and say,

10

and in - ly sigh for thy re - pose;
no peace my wan - dering soul shall see.
the Lord of ev - ery mo - tion there;
from all am its hid - den maz - es there;
"I am thy love, thy God, thy all!"

13

my heart is pained, nor can it be O when shall my all heart my wan - derings end, then shall me thy heart from teous be free,
To feel thy thy power, to hear thy I voice,

16

at rest, till it finds rest in thee.
and all my hath steps to thee - ward tend?
when it less may "Ab re - pose in thee.
to taste thy love, ba, Fa - ther" cry.
choice.
