

The Day is Past and Over

Verse

The day is past and o - - ver;
 The joys of day are o - - ver;
 The toils of day are o - - ver;
 Lord, that in death I sleep not,

4

All thanks, O Lord, to Thee!
 We lift our hearts to Thee,
 We raise our my hymn to Thee,
 And lest my foe should say,

7

We pray Thee that of - fense - - less
 And call on Thee that sin - - less
 And ask that free from per - - il
 I have pre - vailed a - gainst him,

10

The hours of dark may be.
The hours of dark may be.
The hours of dark may be.
Light - en mine eyes, I pray:

13

O Je - sus, keep us in Thy sight,
O Je - sus, make their dark - ness light,
O Je - sus, keep us in Thy sight,
O Je - sus, keep me in Thy sight,

16

And guard us through the com - ing night.
And guard us through the com - ing night.
And guard us through the com - ing night.
And guard me through the com - ing night.
