

Where cross the crowded ways of life

Verse

Where cross the crowd - ed ways of life,
 In haunts of wretch - ed - ness and need,
 From ten - der child - hood's help - less - ness,
 The cup of wa - ter given for you
 O Mas - ter, from the moun - tain - side,
 Till all the world shall learn your love,

6

where sound the cries of race and clan,
 on shad - owed thresh - olds dark with fears,
 from hu - man grief and bur - dened toil,
 still holds the fresh - ness of your grace;
 make haste to heal these hearts of pain;
 and fol - low where your feet have trod;

11

a - bove the noise of self - ish strife,
 from paths where hide the lures of greed,
 from fam - ished souls, from sor - row's stress, yet long these mul - ti - tudes to view
 a - mong these rest - less throngs a - bide;
 till glo - rious from your heav'n a - bove

we hear your voice, O Son of man.
we catch the vi - sion of your tears.
your heart has nev - er known re - coil.
the sweet com - pas - sion of your face.
O tread the cit - y's streets a - gain;
shall come the cit - y of our God.
