O there are ten thousand charms.

The musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is a vocal melody in treble clef, and the lower staff is a piano accompaniment in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of B-flat major (two flats) and 4/4 time. The melody begins with a half note G4, followed by a quarter note A4, then a half note Bb4. The piano accompaniment starts with a half note G3, followed by a quarter note A3, then a half note Bb3. The lyrics 'O there are ten thousand charms.' are written below the vocal staff, with each word aligned with its corresponding note. The phrase 'thou - sand' is hyphenated across two notes.
