All Who Would Valiant Be

Verse

Who would true val - - our see,
Who - so be - - set him round
Hob - gob - lin nor foul fiend

let him come hith - er;
with dis - mal stor - ies,
can daunt his spir - it;

one here will con - - stant be,
do but them - selves con - found;
he knows he at the end

7

come wind, come weath - er;
his strength the more is.
shall life in - - her - it.

9

there's no dis - cour - - age - ment
No li - - on can him fright;
Then fanc - ies fly a - way;

11

shall make him once re - - lent
he'll with a gi - ant fight,
he'll fear not what men say;

13

his first a - vowed in - tent
but he will have a right
he'll la - - bour night and day

My.Hymnary #282 - All Who Would Valiant Be
TEXT: John Bunyan, The Pilgrim's Progress, 1678; alt.
TUNE (ST. DUNSTAN'S 6.5.6.5.6.6.6.5): Charles Winfred Douglas, 1917; alt. 1990

15

to   be   a   pil - grim.
to   be   a   pil - grim.
to   be   a   pil - grim.

My.Hymnary #282 - All Who Would Valiant Be
TEXT: John Bunyan, The Pilgrim's Progress, 1678; alt.
TUNE (ST. DUNSTAN'S 6.5.6.5.6.6.6.5): Charles Winfred Douglas, 1917; alt. 1990