

Christ Died and 'Rose...

*Chasing the wind, trying to hang on.
This life will soon be over "in a song."
Christ died and 'rose, O Christ will come again!
His treasured kingdom stands, it never ends.*

*The Father's love the only thing that lasts.
It changes lives, an anchor holding fast.
Christ died and 'rose, O Christ will come again!
To Him be glory, praise Him without end.*

*Saints go before us, showing us the way.
Hope for the future, and a better day.
Christ died and 'rose, O Christ will come again!
God always with us, sing forever, amen!*
