

When Comes the Dawning

Psalm 8

*When comes the dawning of the day, creation sings its sunrise song.
With all God's beauty on display,
the highest praise to Him belongs.*

*The mountains, oceans, deserts, plains,
to God their hymns and praises bring.
All creatures large and small proclaim,
Great is our God, the King of Kings.*

*We worship God. It's God who reigns.
"O how majestic is His name!"
Let all God's people sing His praise, and find the wonder in each day.*
